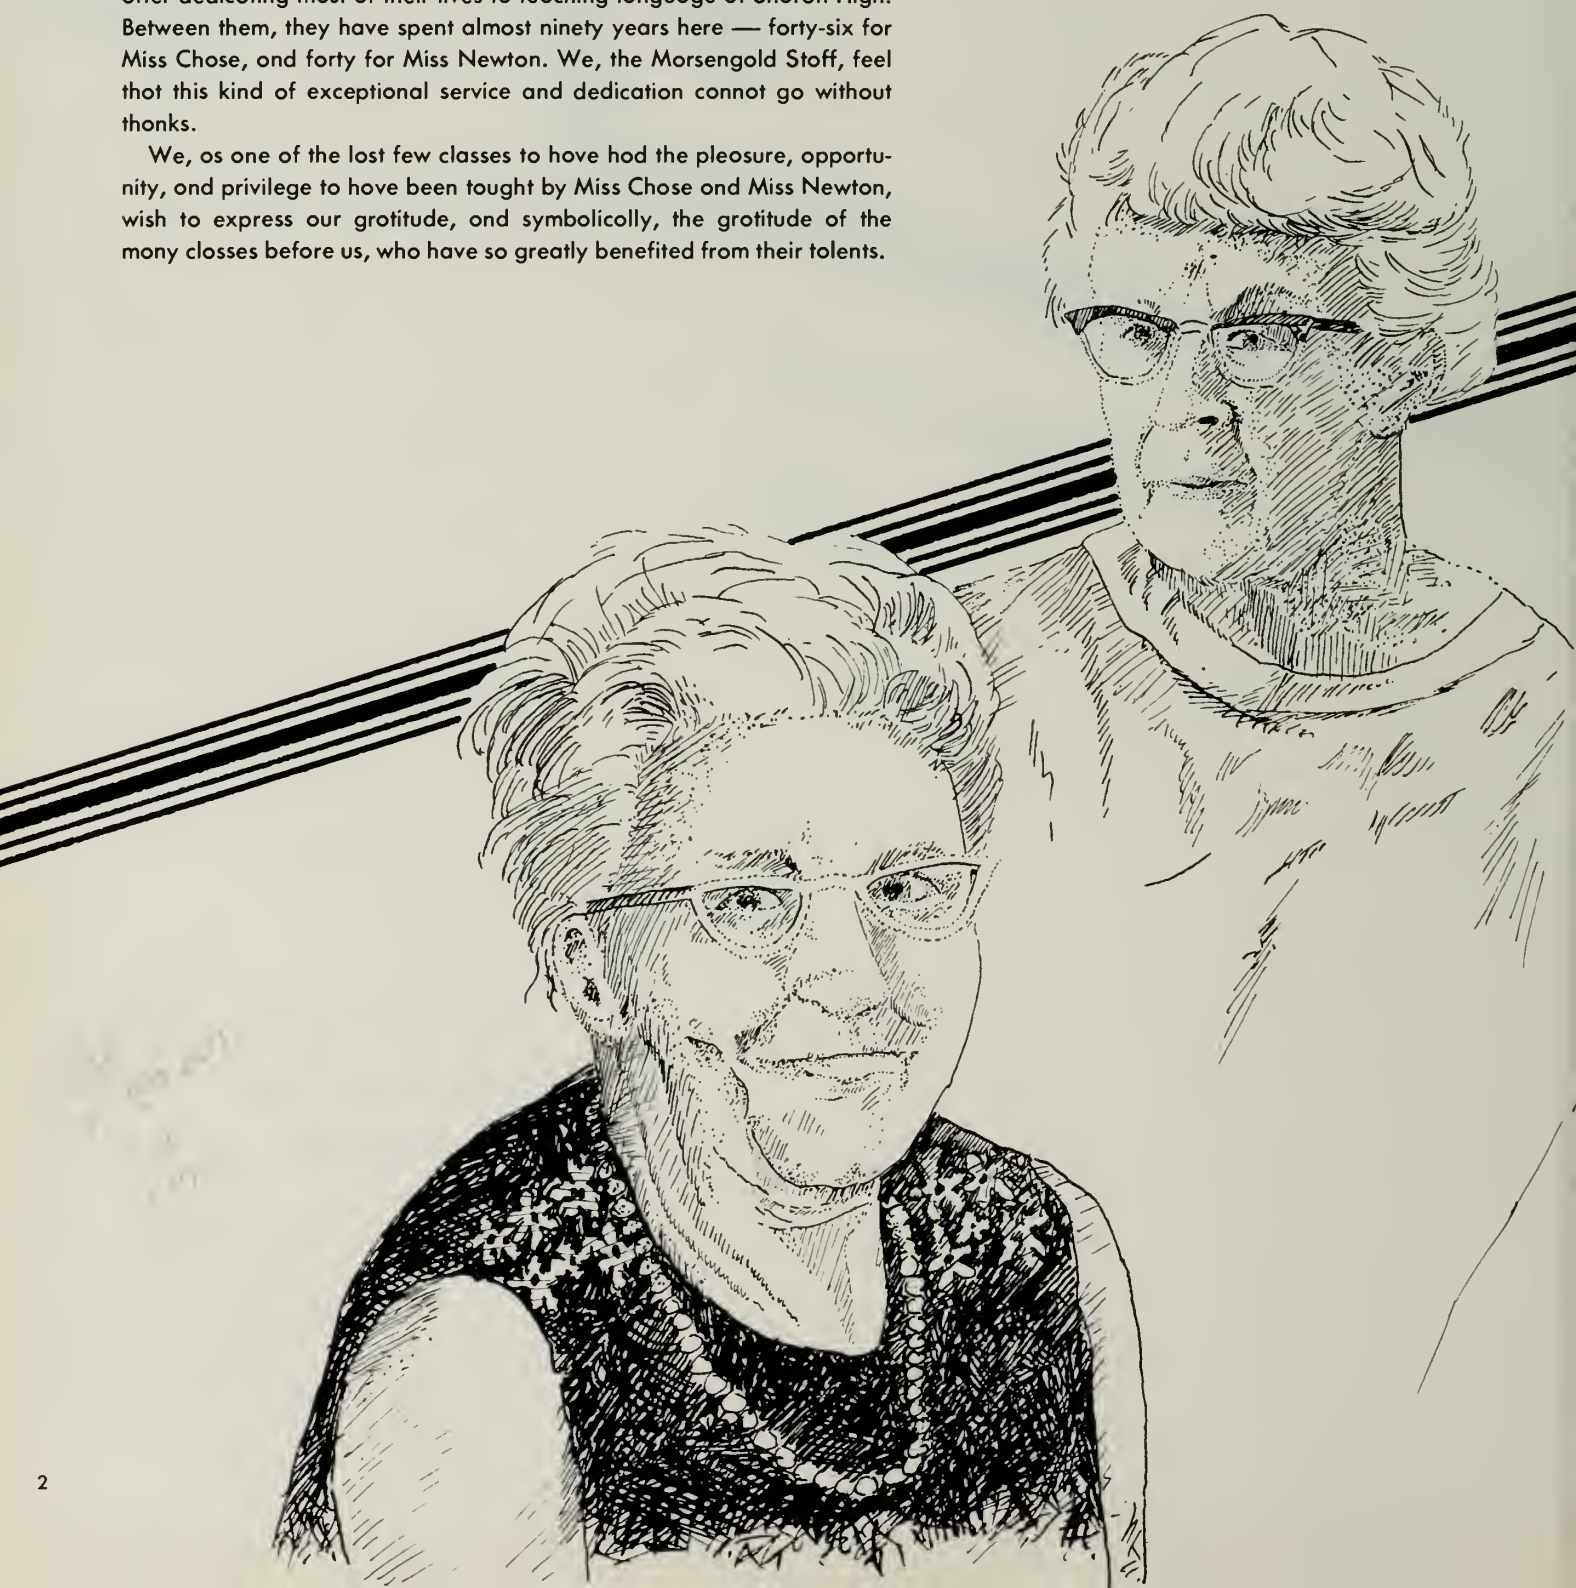
APPRECIATION AND...

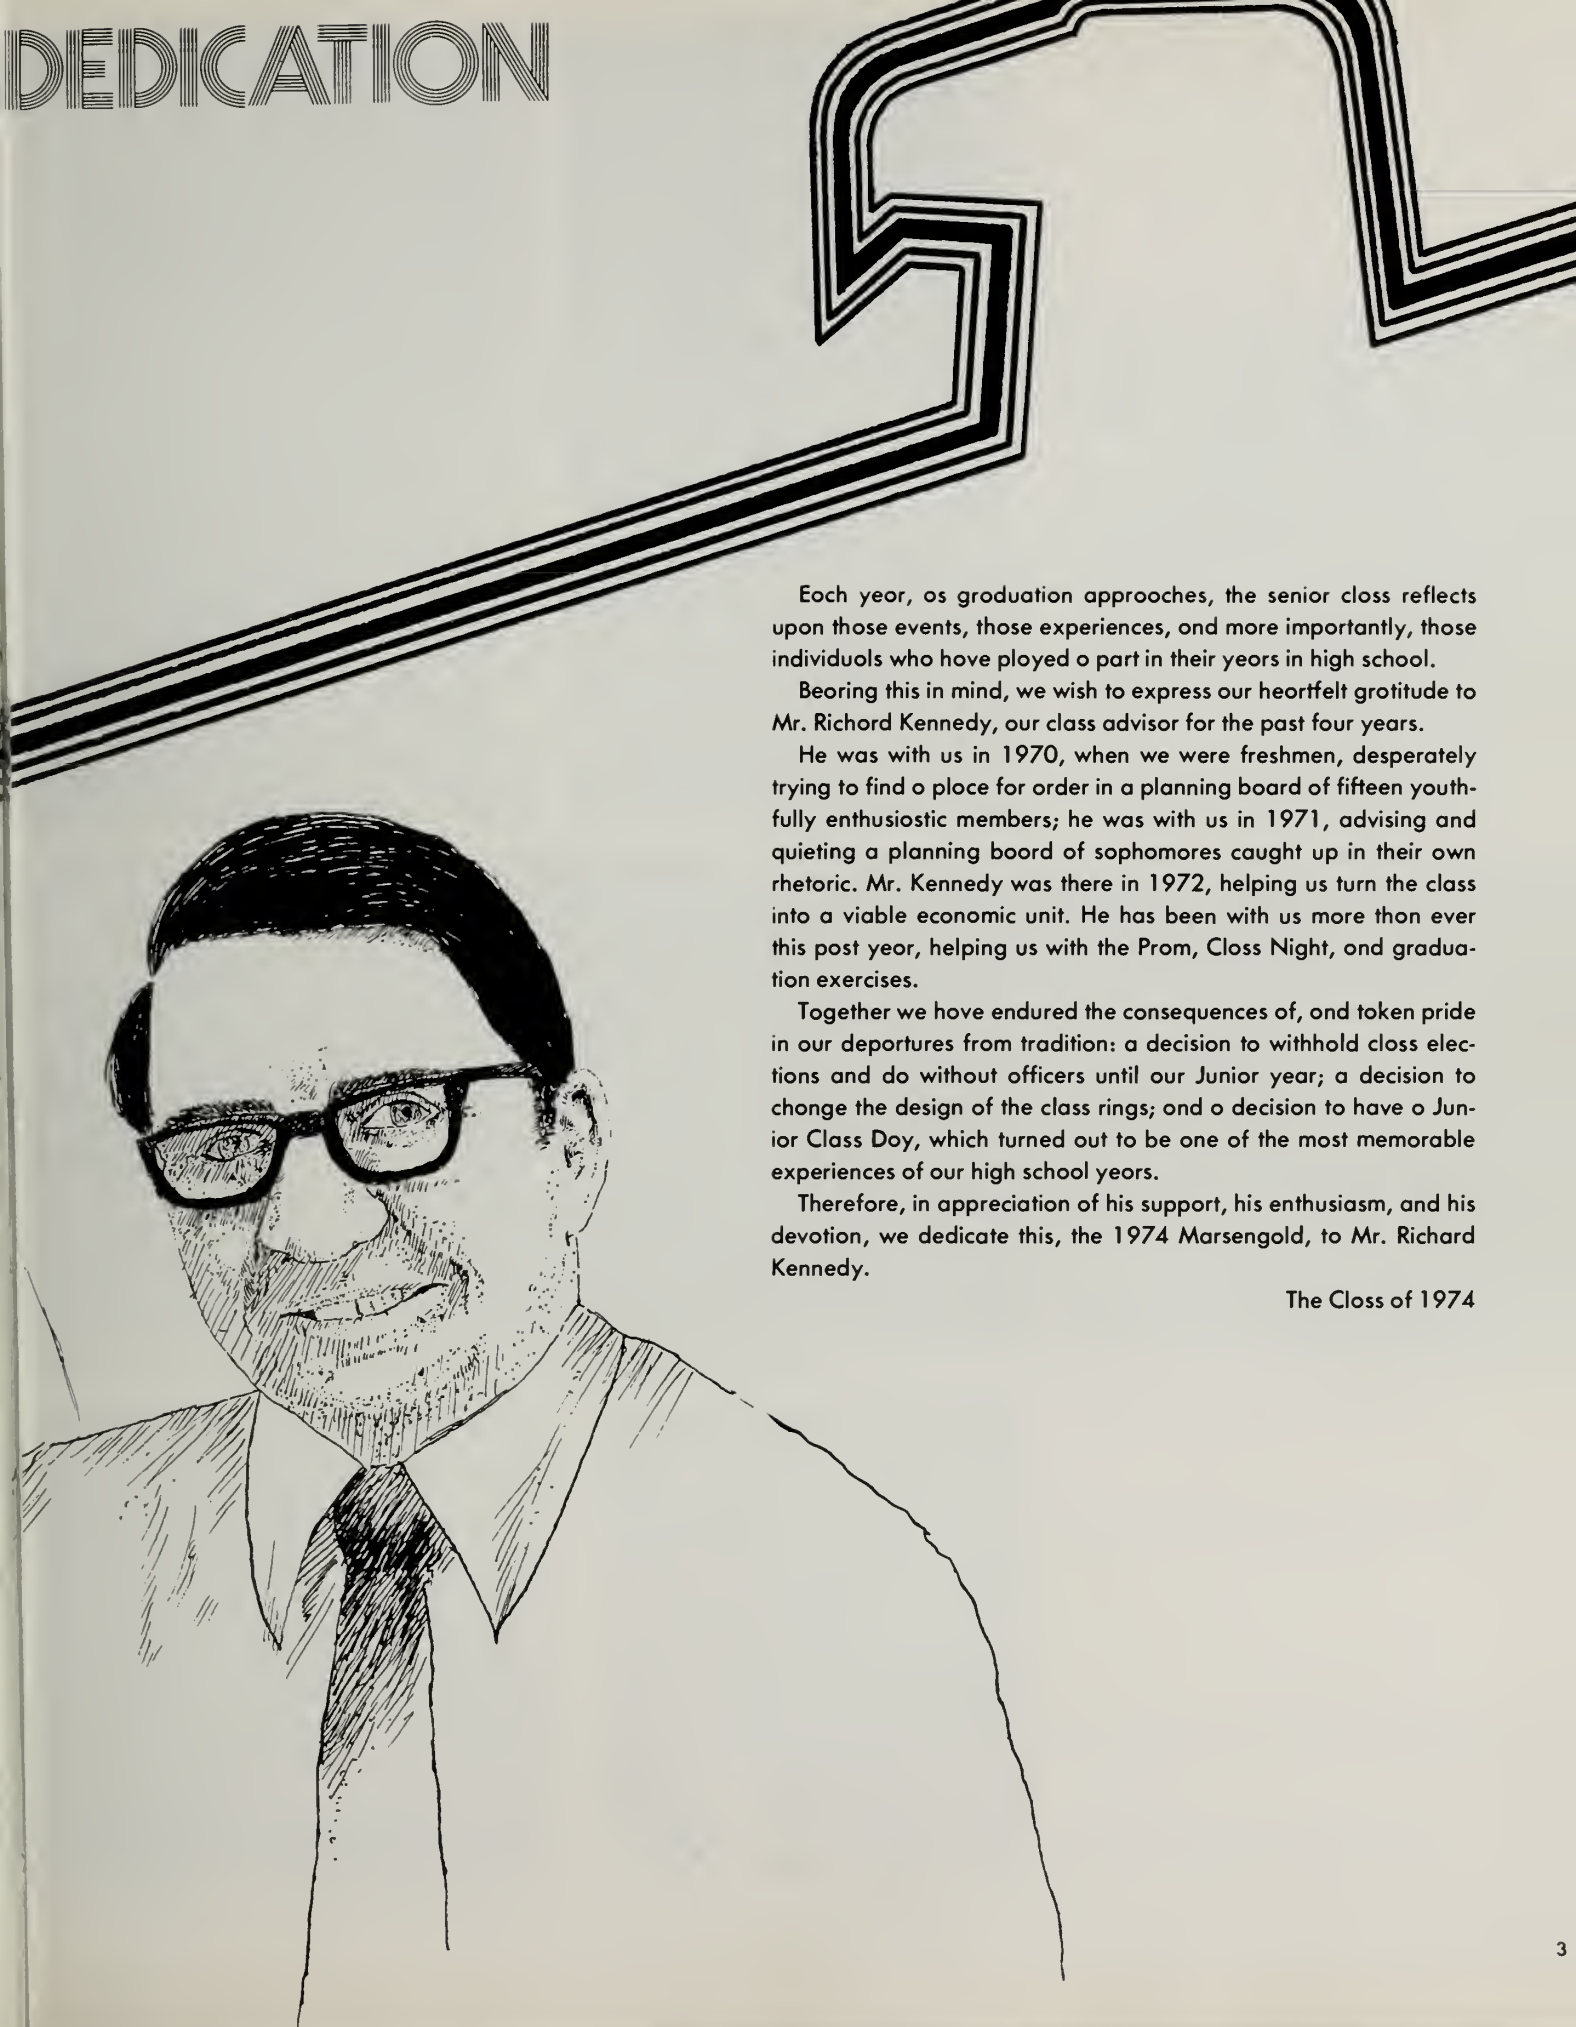
In every school there ore good teochers, but the truly outstonding are quite rore. We, ot Shoron High, ore lucky enough to hove been blessed with two of the truly outstonding.

Miss Dorothy Chose ond Miss Dorris Newton hove both recently retired ofter dedicoting most of their lives to teoching longuoge ot Shoron High. Between them, they have spent almost ninety years here — forty-six for Miss Chose, ond forty for Miss Newton. We, the Morsengold Stoff, feel thot this kind of exceptional service and dedication connot go without thonks.

We, os one of the lost few classes to hove hod the pleosure, opportunity, ond privilege to hove been tought by Miss Chose ond Miss Newton, wish to express our grotitude, ond symbolicolly, the grotitude of the mony closses before us, who have so greatly benefited from their tolents.



DEDICATION



Eoch yeor, os groduation approoches, the senior closs reflects upon those events, those experiences, ond more importantly, those individuols who hove ployed o part in their yeors in high school.

Beoring this in mind, we wish to express our heortfelt grotitude to Mr. Richord Kennedy, our class advisor for the past four years.

He was with us in 1970, when we were freshmen, desperately trying to find o ploce for order in a planning board of fifteen youthfully enthusiostic members; he was with us in 1971, advising and quieting a planning boord of sophomores caught up in their own rhetoric. Mr. Kennedy was there in 1972, helping us turn the class into a viable economic unit. He has been with us more thon ever this post yeor, helping us with the Prom, Closs Night, ond graduation exercises.

Together we hove endured the consequences of, ond token pride in our deportures from tradition: a decision to withhold closs elections and do without officers until our Junior year; a decision to chonge the design of the class rings; ond o decision to have o Junior Class Doy, which turned out to be one of the most memorable experiences of our high school yeors.

Therefore, in appreciation of his support, his enthusiasm, and his devotion, we dedicate this, the 1974 Marsengold, to Mr. Richard Kennedy.

"Oy veyl I forgot to shave my legs."

"Why, do I look cold?"

"Don't worry. It's only my daily supply of nutriment."

CLASS DAY JUNE 3, 1973

"Would believe this is the last one before I stort my diet?"

"Do I smell a mustache burning?"

"How humiliotingl Isn't thot Jimmy with the some hat?"

"Oh, c'mon you guys, give me back my shorts."

"Would you believe that this meat is government inspected?"

"Boy, have I gone under."

"We have to stop meeting like this."

"And now for my ten commandments . . ."

"Who's the fairest of us all?"

VARIETY SHOW
1973

Do yau always have ta pick an me?

What a rip-off!! I even have ta carry my awn boaks!!!

Mmm good, mmm good, that's what school lunches are, mmm good.

Don't laugh — it's taken me twelve years to get this far!!

Oh, get out af heal

Every now ond then o mon's mind is stretched by a new idea and never shrinks back to its original proportions.

Time out for a little nop.

Mire esos pieinos!

THIS is what we hove to show for our four yeors of high school.

Hey Koren, thot's not foir. Why do I always hove to be the one to walk?

"But the children of tomorrow are the ones called by life, and they follow it with steady steps and heads high, they are the dawn of new frontiers, no smoke will veil their eyes and no jingle of chains will drown out their voices . . . "

—Kahlil Gibran—

"In such a fantastic and dangerous world — we will not find answers in old dogmas, by repeating outward slogans, or fighting on ancient battlegrounds against fading enemies long after the real struggle has moved on. We ourselves must change to master change. We must rethink all our old ideas and beliefs before they capture and destroy us . . .

America must look to its young people, the children of this time of change. And we look especially to that privileged minority of educated men who are the students of America."

—Robert F. Kennedy—

When you are old and gray,
And full of sleep
And nodding by the fire,
Take down this book
And slowly read and dream
Of the soft look
Your eyes had once,
And of their shadows deep.
